

LILLEY'S MEN GO TO WRIGHT

SUSQUEHANNA CANDIDATE IS THE CHOICE.

Conferees of the Bradford-Wyoming Susquehanna-Wayne District Meet in This City and on the First Ballot Break the Deadlock That Existed at Two Previous Conferences. Wright Gets Twelve Votes from Bradford, Wyoming and Susquehanna Against Greene's Four.

The deadlock of the Republican conferees of the fourteenth congressional district was broken yesterday at the conference in Hotel Jermyn. The six Bradford conferees, who had been supporting Mial E. Lilley, of Towanda, went over to Hon. C. Fred Wright, of Susquehanna, and gave him twelve votes as against four for the Wayne candidate, Homer Greene.

This was the third session of the conferees. The first was held in Honesdale, May 10, and the second in Wilkes-Barre, May 27. On every ballot, on these two sessions, the six Bradford votes went to Lilley; the four from Susquehanna, and two from Wyoming, to Wright, and the four from Honesdale to Greene.

Yesterday morning Lilley withdrew in favor of Wright, and the six conferees voted for Wright on the first ballot. The conference was held at 2 o'clock in one of the hotel parlors. It was presided over by John W. Coddling, of Towanda, who was substituted as a conferee for E. T. Hayle, of Towanda. A. G. Gregory, of Wyoming, and E. E. Jones, of Susquehanna, acted as secretaries. The conferees from the different counties were: Susquehanna—E. E. Jones, of Harford; Charles H. Ainey, of Montrose; District Attorney Ralph H. Little, of Montrose; Representative J. W. Adams, of Brookville.

Wyoming—A. G. Gregory, of Heshopon; W. L. Avery, of Tunkhannock; Bradford—John Brody, of Canton; Morris Shepherd, of Towanda; John W. Coddling, of Towanda; Charles Mitchell, of Troy; John D. Kinney, of Warren Center; George S. Curtis, of Athens.

Wayne—H. T. Menner, of Honesdale; J. C. Birdsall, of Honesdale; Dr. A. J. Simons, of Dreher; H. P. Kellum, of Kellums.

Among the prominent Republicans who came with the delegations from the different counties were the following: Prof. Charles E. Moxley, of Hallstead, county superintendent of schools; Postmaster George C. Burns, of Montrose; Postmaster George Schmitt, of Susquehanna; County Treasurer Leander Lott, of Montrose; Postmaster W. F. Simrell, of Hallstead; Attorney F. L. Lott, of Montrose; Ernest Lott, of Montrose; Warren Stirling, of Fairdale, and J. H. Pritchard, of Southville, rival candidates for sheriff; Druggist Frank D. Morris, of Montrose; William M. Post, of Montrose.

Hon. J. K. Newell, Postmaster D. M. Turner, Attorney Rodney A. Meier, John M. Saxton, D. J. Sweet, of Towanda; F. G. Fair, of Athens; E. P. Lohm, Dr. C. L. Kenyon, of Montroseton.

FROM WYOMING. G. S. Baldwin, of the Tunkhannock Republican; R. W. Bannatyne, ex-Judge N. W. Bardwell, of Tunkhannock. District Attorney L. M. Atkinson, J. E. Robinson, Judge H. Wilson, E. H. Conright, H. Z. Russell, W. P. Schenck, of Honesdale; H. N. Farley, of Eauclunuk; W. F. Riefler, of Tamners Falls; J. W. Sandercock, of Ariel; Mead Sandercock, of Hoadleys; H. G. Sandercock, of Cherry Ridge; M. L. Skinner, of Allenville.

PERMITTED TO AMEND LIENS

CITY WILL NOT LOSE SANDERSON AVENUE SUITS.

Property Owners Will Have to Pay for the Pave—City Also Wins a Victory in the Matter of the Mulberry Street Pave—Other Cases That Were Up in Argument Court Yesterday—Two Divorces Granted. Action Taken in Other Divorce Cases—Marriage Licenses.

In argument court yesterday the court took up a number of cases where it was asked to strike off liens that had been filed for the paving of Sanderson avenue. The liens were not perfect, but City Solicitor Watson succeeded in getting the court to permit them to be amended. The persons who imperfect were Frank Phillips, Patrick McCann and P. L. Phillips. There are about sixty other property owners of Sanderson avenue who object to paying for the pave on similar grounds, and in each of these the liens will be amended.

Demurrers were sustained in the cases of the city of Scranton against M. Alice Scanlon, administrator; city of Scranton against William Pritchard and others. An effort was made to have municipal liens stricken off in the cases of Ralph Grant, H. T. Koehler and William Delke, who were sued by the city for the cost of the Mulberry street pave. Court permitted the city to amend the defective liens which are the basis of the suits. The judgments of aldermen and justices of the peace were reversed in the following cases: Bartel Brewing company against Peter Lipowicz, certiorari; Stanley Shap against Frank Novak and others, certiorari; Frank Yurkus against Yustin Walowicz, certiorari; John Bunovics against Price-Panconst Coal company, certiorari; D. B. Ball against Grant Evans, certiorari.

The following cases were argued: Fleming & O'Hara against City of Scranton, exceptions to report of referee; C. M. Little against D. K. Oakley, exceptions to affidavit of defense, rule for judgment; Elizabeth Tappen against G. Warren Tappen, rule to open judgment; David D. Patterson against Elmer W. Jackson, certiorari; William D. Kennedy and others against J. E. O'Brien, rule for new trial; Charles Kline against Scranton Railway company, demurrer; James Campbell against Scranton Railway company, demurrer; M. C. Anstey against John Flanagan, rule to strike off lien.

In the demurrer of the Scranton Railway company to the statement in the trespass case of Adolph Marcus, the plaintiff was allowed ten days in which to file a more specific statement. The case of E. A. Plummer against the Hillsdale Coal and Iron company and others, demurrer, was continued. The writ of certiorari in the case of Max Firestein against E. Freedman was quashed.

Rules were made absolute in these cases: T. Torvosky against Pancoast Coal company, rule to strike off return of service; Wentz & Duffy against Annette Reynolds, judgment to be entered for $21.21; Hannah J. Lewis against William Van Gorder, rule to strike off non-suit.

Rules were discharged in the cases of Frank M. Spencer against A. L. Merriam and others, rule to set aside sheriff's sale; Lynch & Bronson against A. R. & H. Stone, rule to strike off appeal.

Divorce Matters. Bert A. Foote was yesterday granted a divorce from M. Belle Foote, and Libbie M. Palmer from Delmar D. Palmer. The Footes were married in New York, April 23, 1900, and came here to live. They boarded at the Terrace, and Mr. Foote was employed in one of the large stores of this city. Mrs. Foote did not like this city and after they had lived here two weeks she left him and went to Syracuse, N. Y. She has not since lived with her husband.

The Palmers were married seventeen years ago Tuesday at Lisle, N. Y., by Rev. J. H. Boyce, and made their home in Binghamton, N. Y. Mr. Palmer was a commercial traveler. Mrs. Pal. testified that her husband abused her in a most brutal manner and heaped all kinds of indignities upon her. In October, 1895, she was compelled to leave him.

The following rules for decrees in divorce were submitted to the judges yesterday without argument: Rosamond Zilk against George M. Zilk, Elizabeth Kreiger against August W. Kreiger, Louis Wassel against Mary Jane Wassel, A. W. Cramer against Elizabeth E. Cramer, E. K. Kille against Harry E. Kille, Muggie Harris against Fuller Harris, P. Christ against Simon Christ, Thomas Rowlands against E. P. Rowlands, Laura I. Eldridge against William C. Eldridge.

A rule for counsel fees in the divorce case of Margaret Brown against Charles Rice was made absolute, and a rule for counsel fees and alimony in the case of Henry Scheuer against Pauline Scheuer was argued. A number of other divorce cases went over until the next term because they were not in shape for consideration by the court.

Child Puzzled Him. Congressman Brownlow, of Tennessee, has a smart granddaughter, whose clever sayings are the delight of her parents. The other day she came to her grandfather with her face all smiles. "Grandpa," she said "I saw something this morning running across the kitchen floor without any legs. What do you think it was?" Mr. Brownlow studied for a while and gave up. "What was it?" he asked. "Water," said the youngster triumphantly.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A TRAITOR'S DEATH. Last Words of Benedict Arnold.

June 14, 1801, Benedict Arnold died. In a rude garret, near the loneliest suburbs of the city of London, lay a dying man. He was but half dressed, though his legs were encased in long military boots. An aged minister stood beside the rough couch. The form was that of a strong man grown old through care more than age. There was a face that you might look upon but once, and yet wear it in your memory forever.

"Would you die in the faith of a Christian?" faltered the preacher, as he knelt there on the damp floor. The white lips of the death-stricken man trembled, but made no sound. Then, with the strong agony of death upon him, he arose and sitting upright, spoke. For the first time he spoke, "Christian!" he echoed, in that deep tone which thrilled the preacher to the heart. "Will that faith give me back my honor? Come with me, old man; come with me, far over the waters, and we are there!"

Yonder is the church in which I knelt in childhood; yonder the green on which I sported when a boy. But another flag waves yonder, in place of the flag that waved when I was a child. And listen, old man; were I to pass along the streets as I passed when but a child, the very babes in their cradles would use their tiny hands and curse me!"

"* * * Suddenly the dying man arose; he tottered along the floor. With those white fingers, whose nails were blue with the death chill, he threw open a valise. He drew from thence a faded coat of blue, fringed with silver, and the wreck of a battle-flag. "Look ye, priest! This faded coat is spotted with my blood. * * * This coat I wore when I first heard the news of Lexington; this coat I wore when I planted the banner of the stars on Ticonderoga; that blue robe was pierced in the fight of Quebec; and now I am a—let me—hisper it in your ear!" He hissed that single burning word into the minister's ear—"Traitor!"

There, in that rude hut, while the death-watch throbbed like a heart in the shattered wall, there, unknown, unwept, in all the bitterness of desolation, lay the corpse of the patriot and the traitor. Oh, that our own true Washington had been there to sever that good right arm from the corpse; and, while the dishonored body rotted into dust, to bring home that noble arm, and embed it among the holiest memories of the past. For that right arm struck many a gallant blow for freedom, yonder at Ticonderoga, at Quebec, Champlain and Saratoga—that arm yonder, beneath the snow-white mountains, in the deep silence of the river of the dead, first raised into light the Banner of the Stars.

THE TRIBUNE'S Liberal Offer to Subscribers

By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Cosmopolitan Magazine and the Woman's Home Companion, THE TRIBUNE is able to offer these two high-class magazines to any person who is a subscriber to THE TRIBUNE for one year each for the small sum of $1.25.

Cosmopolitan Magazine (one year).....$1.00

Woman's Home Companion (one year)..... 1.00

$2.00

The Tribune Offers the Two for $1.25

Everybody buys one or more magazines each month—probably a great many of THE TRIBUNE's readers are buying one or both of these, as they are among the leading and most popular of literary publications. This offer gives you an opportunity to save seventy-five cents, simply because you are a subscriber to THE TRIBUNE.

To Paid-Up Subscribers

THE TRIBUNE places only one restriction on this offer. A subscriber's subscription must be paid to the current month, as it would be manifestly unfair to expect THE TRIBUNE to forward subscription money to these publications while THE TRIBUNE's account remains unpaid.

A subscriber whose subscription is paid has but to hand $1.25 to THE TRIBUNE and he will receive the two magazines each month for one year.

To Non-Subscribers

You can avail yourself of this offer by simply ordering THE TRIBUNE, to be paid for at the regular rate of 50 cents per month. You can then secure the two magazines by paying $1.25.

To Subscribers Who Wish To Pay for The Tribune in Advance

You can save a lot of money by paying for THE TRIBUNE in advance. If you have been paying by the month or at the end of the year, and wish to pay for THE TRIBUNE a year in advance, you can get THE TRIBUNE, The Cosmopolitan and the Woman's Home Companion, each for one year, for $6.25, just 25 cents more than you have been paying for THE TRIBUNE alone.

To Contestants in The Tribune's Educational Contest

You should explain this liberal offer to those you ask to subscribe for THE TRIBUNE. If they will pay you $1.25 in addition to the price of THE TRIBUNE they will receive these two magazines one year. Sample copies of the magazines will be furnished you free. Here are the prices, where THE TRIBUNE subscription is paid in advance:

THE TRIBUNE one month and the magazines one year..... $1.75

THE TRIBUNE three months and the magazines one year..... 2.50

THE TRIBUNE six months and the magazines one year..... 3.75

THE TRIBUNE one year and the magazines one year..... 6.25

Those wishing to take advantage of this offer should hand their money to THE TRIBUNE at once and their subscriptions will commence with the first number of the magazines published after the subscription is received.

WHAT SAVED HIM.

The following is from the Kingston Free Press: "Dr. H. Tull who went Wednesday morning to attend Mr. W. A. Jones, who was shot from ambush Tuesday night, returned to Kingston last night. He informed us that Mr. Jones' person was not penetrated by any of the shot, and that a memorandum book given to advertise Dr. Pierce's remedies was what saved him. Three of the shot flattened against this book and the force of the shot was so great that they left three red imprints on the flesh. The shot was B. B. size."

Of course this is a singular case of life-saving by means of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Book. Any other book of equal thickness would have as effectually stopped the shot. But there have been cases where the Memorandum Book has been the means of saving life under circumstances in which no ordinary book would have been of value.

Many men and women who have been considered hopelessly sick, date the beginning of their recovery from the time when they read in Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Book the story of the cures effected by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and were led to use the same means of cure.

"I will write to tell you what myself and family think of your medicine," writes Mr. M. M. Wardwell, of Linwood, Leavenworth Co., Kans. "It will do all you say and more. I was taken sick nine years ago with fever. Had the doctor and he broke up the fever all right, but I took diarrhea right away; he couldn't cure it and it became chronic, and then he gave up the case. I got so weak with it and had protruding piles so badly I couldn't lie down, nor hardly sit up, except in a chair with the bottom out. Was that way two or three months; thought I would 'pass in my checks,' but picked up one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books one day and saw your description of catarrh of the stomach. I thought it hit my case. We had a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house that was got for my mother. You recommend it for catarrh of the stomach, so I began taking it. The one bottle nearly cured me. I got two bottles next time and took one and one-half and was well. I haven't been bothered with diarrhea since. Your medicine cost me three dollars and the doctor cost me fourteen dollars."

Catarrh is a disease which is not merely offensive but deadly. The poisonous discharge of nasal catarrh running down the sensitive lining membrane of the throat carries the disease with it. As the stomach is lined with a mucous surface it may also be affected with a catarrhal condition, producing dyspepsia, loss of appetite, diarrhea and other maladies. Since blood is made from food, a catarrhal condition of the stomach and bowels must interfere very materially with the perfect production of this vital fluid, and as a result the whole body suffers.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures catarrh whether in the head, stomach or lungs. It eradicates the poison from the blood, and establishes the body in sound health.

"My health was poor for five years, and kept getting worse until I could not go out," writes Mrs. Lulu Pace, of Huntsville, Texas (Box 241). "I was in bed nearly all of the time. God alone knows what I suffered. Had falling of uterus, also ulceration the worst kind heart trouble, dyspepsia torpid liver, nervousness and stomach trouble. My stomach was so sore I could not bear the weight of my hand on it; had no appetite, and every time I ate anything it would nearly kill me. I had been under the treatment of four doctors, and had just about lived on medicine. I had been one year since I had a natural action of the bowels. The doctor's medicine had but little effect on me, so I called in another physician and they pronounced it an abscess in stomach and treated me for that for some time. This condition lasted five months, and it was thought I could not live. I prayed that God would take me out of my misery; it was hard for me to say that, for my poor husband stayed by my side all the time, and my two sweet little boys would come in to see me when I was not able to see them, and I would think, 'How can I leave them?' It seemed as though my husband could not stand it. The doctors found that it was not an abscess, so they did not know what to do but give me opiates and I would die easy. I got a little better, so I could get up, and that was all. I could not walk across the room without having a spell with my heart. I would get cold and shake as though I had a chill. My feet and hands would be as cold as ice, and I could not draw a long breath. It seemed as though my heart would stop. This is the condition I was in when my mother-in-law brought me one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books to read, and insisted that I try his medicine. I told her it would be like all the rest of the medicine I had been taking. She said, 'If you will try a little of it I will be satisfied.' She had been using the medicine for years when she needed any medicine at all, and it was the only medicine she used. I decided to try it; thought I would die anyway, so I sat down and wrote you just how I was, and you replied, telling me what to do, and I did just what you advised. I took ten bottles of each of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription,' and three vials of 'Pellels,' and I call myself cured. I haven't taken any medicine to amount to anything in a year, and that is longer than I had gone for five years before. I think I had taken almost a barrel of medicine before, from different doctors, and I was nearly dead when Dr. Pierce took charge of me. I think God who in his mercy sent him to me. I hope that those who are suffering as I did will see this and will do as I did."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, liver, lungs and other organs, when, as is often the case, these diseases have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and its associated organs.

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The sole motive for substitution is to enable the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains but you lose. Therefore, accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."
